

Principal Contractor

Managing Contractor or Sub Contractor

Note that where reference is made to an action by the PCTWC it does not mean they have to do the work personally. They may delegate their role as defined by their temporary works procedure, however they retain responsibility for the task. It may be the TWS, administrative assistant, or a TWC employed by another organisation undertakes the work.

The information to the left is not repeated again here. Additional information is shown that is relevant to TWC and TWS role.